

Foxbury Church 3<sup>d</sup>

Dear Maria & Henry

I sent for Lockwood I think 45 pages of journal very hastily written, but which I think contains news enough to obtain an intelligent audience and now I am notified by Mary that there will be an opportunity to write to tomorrow - am as it would be a sin & shame to neglect it - I write as you see tho' I have no news to tell & not a word to say -

I hurried the last page of my journal - being in the very extremity of haste - & have forgotten now what I intended or what I omitted -

I got a letter from Warren last Saturday - he will be up home on a day or two - Saturday evening I spent at Chapman's place - reading Bulwer's Night & Morning which we all like very much - Sunday I finished it & was so absorbed with my brother's work that I was not fit to live - but I did live - & in the afternoon Dobson & Levy & myself went & paid it with Glenister & took tea there - & of course many other good things - you will see H's letter to Henry Clarke in the Herald of Freedom that I send you - It is much as follows - & John Chapman who turns out to be a coz of H's brother in law has written a flaming letter about it - also Henry D. Wright - all which is encouraging the Abolitionists - we came home & paid the rest of the money at B. Place - Dobson was remaining in town because the stage left the next day on Monday

She left with a long train of flower pots for very month. — Honorable I was at school all day — the commencement of a new quarter — just the same number of pupils but more are expected when the spring fairly opens —

Harrison said that he should write by the Postall if the thing was possible — but in case he did not, he wished me to say that he should be very glad if Garrison could make out the exordium of his Speech at the Sabbath Convention — when he states the foundation of his faith & pinches himself so surely to the Bible — he wants — the authority of the Reporter in one of his own Testimony as it has become necessary for him to publish the Speech to refute the calumnies of Colver & others — Do write something for purpose for publication — for the whole Ad. public he is hungry & thirsty for information — or encouragement from you —

Brother May has lost his father — he was buried yesterday from Stone Chapel & the town rings with praises of his virtues &c — I hope poor Mrs. Alcott will now be relieved from the suffering to which she has been subjected so long — — Mr. Peter Quincy Adams is dead also — dropped down in his garden suddenly — & has gone there —

Let me repeat my charges to you to ascertain before visiting any place whether the Yellow fever is there & is coming in - I think as Anne once said - If you should leave yourselves or put yourselves in the way of pestilence that death would rest on your memories - ~~be very~~ careful as the season gets hotter - don't expose yourselves to the sun or the stamp -

- & having stomach enough, come away in season & with those changes - I much desire you in the Louis houses - & am supposing that his stated letter concerning people doctoring them they can be made to take of themselves.

The Cuba company will go to tomorrow Wednesday - There are to be balls immunization trophies, Salutes & other forms of rejoicing up & down numerous & during a number of days - but it is said if it is a large ball - but if it is a few hours in large houses for the occasion - — changes with the time from one night to another. And she has nearly written to Anne about it.
I have at present sent my friends what other entire & main covering the progress of the affair as I thought it being at this time the intrest that must be excited. It is known that we know - but a course of we will be very careful of those subjects especially & I don't know what they contain, & only to note it is still true & I think it so - The house gets the light upon it why the any agreement goes off & probably should never have — If you have time to write any critique upon articles concerning the House & the Man ~~are~~
